QUEENSLAND WASTE & RESOURCE
RECOVERY (WARR) FORUM
5 OCTOBER 2023
ROOM THREE SIXTY, BRISBANE

ABOUT THE FORUM

The Waste Management and Resource Recovery Association of Australia's (WMRR's) inaugural Queensland Waste and Resource Recovery (WARR) Forum will be held at Room Three Sixty, Brisbane on Thursday, 5 October 2023. The theme for this one-day event is 'Are we on the path to 80%'.

From China Sword to ongoing disasters both natural and pandemic, there's no doubt it's been a tough few years for our essential industry. However, these challenges have put a spotlight on waste and resource recovery (WARR), highlighting the importance of material management, and the need to have a strong and resilient sector operating in Australia.

Queensland is no exception - there's a lot of activity underway, however will it be enough to hit the targets set out in the states Waste Management and Resource Recovery Strategy?
